To whom it may concern,

*I was recommended to Mario from EG Automotive detailing by a friend.
I have a late model Holden Senator that I love. But was unhappy with the paint finish.*

*This was all my own fault, as I lead a busy life and didn't realise using car washing companies like carlovers, was slowly damaging my paint.
I love my car, but it was depressing me that it had scratches, and a lot of swirls in the paint from using the soapy brush.*

*I rang Mario, and he dropped by my office and gave me a quote to repair my paint.
I gave him the go-ahead to proceed and we agreed on a date.*

After having it done the first time. You wouldn't think I own the same car. All I could do was stand back and say "wow" It was amazing.

Now I get Mario to do it, every 3 to 4 months, just to keep it tiptop shape. He does an amazing job.

*I thoroughly recommend Mario, to anybody who is in the same position as myself.
If you love your car as much as I do. You wont find a better guy to look after it. He is passionate about it. He really enjoys doing it, and he will do the little things, that you wouldn't expect to be done.*

*If anybody wants a better reference, your quiet welcome to drop by my office anytime.
I think my car now speaks volumes.*

Yours faithfully.
